On Monday morning, St. Philip's College, in collaboration with the San Antonio Police and Fire Departments and San Antonio Fighting Back Inc., will be hosting National Night Out 2008 "Community Kickoff".

Information on crime prevention strategies for neighborhoods, San Antonio Fighting Back, Inc. and St. Philip's College will be available.

National Night Out is designed to: (1) heighten crime and drug prevention awareness; (2) generate support for, and participation in, local anti-crime programs; (3) strengthen neighborhood spirit and police/community interaction; and (4) send a message to criminals letting them know neighborhoods nationwide are organized and fighting back.
